

2022 Kids in the Garden Class at Alta Vista Botanical Gardens

Saturdays 10 am to Noon (unless otherwise noted)

January 8 - Animal Homes and Garden Habitats - learn about animal homes, then walk the Gardens with Farmer Jones and discover where they make their homes

February 12 - Veggie Critters - create your own creatures using vegetables and fruits and your imagination

March 19 (THIRD Saturday) - Soil, Composting, and Spring Planting - what are the different kinds of soil? how can we make soil by composting?

April 23 - Earth Day Festival 10 am to 3 pm FREE event - children's nature activities, music and dance, vendors, plant sale, BBQ lunch for sale

May - NO CLASS

June 11 - Nature Drawing and Watercolors - take a close look at a tree, a flower, or a plant and draw it - then add color to create a masterpiece!

July 9 - Cooking and Nutrition - Corn on the cob and ways we cook and eat corn

August 13 - Water All Around Us - How do we use water? How can we save water? How can we have fun with water?

September 10 - Bugs and Butterflies - What do they do in nature? How do they grow and change?

October 15 - Fall Fun Festival 10 am to 3 pm FREE event- scarecrow contest, pumpkins, children's fall crafts, vendors, plant sale, BBQ lunch for sale

November 12 - Cotton and Nature Crafts - How does cotton grow? Create your own crafts using natural materials

December 10 - Scavenger Hunt for Nature's Treasures - walk the Gardens with Farmer Jones to discover intriguing plants and garden features

$5 each child or adult Pre-registration requested
Contact Farmer Jones (760) 822-6824 farmerjonesavbg@gmail.com
For monthly reminders - send your email to Farmer Jones